

Manier & Herod Seeks Senior Associate Attorney

Nashville, Tennessee

Manier & Herod is searching for a Senior Litigation Associate to work in its national Surety and Fidelity practice, who must possess 5+ years of experience litigating complex commercial, insurance coverage, and/or construction litigation in both federal and state courts. The position will require the Associate to support Partners on large, complex, and/or multi-party lawsuits throughout the United States and to oversee and be lead counsel on smaller federal and state court lawsuits. This individual will also be expected to help supervise, direct, and train younger Associates in litigation and other matters. Strong analytical and writing skills are required.

Qualifications

- Top 50 law school preferred
- Top 25% of law school class
- Moot court or mock trial experience preferred
- Tennessee License or ability to gain admission by reciprocity preferred
- Multi-state admission in federal courts preferred
- Experience taking and defending depositions, complex motion practice, motion and appellate arguments
- Trial and/or arbitration experience preferred

Compensation and Benefits

Competitive compensation, commensurate with experience and credentials. Significant opportunity for bonus payment based on annual collections. Firm benefits include firm-funded health insurance and health savings account, free parking, and 401k matching and profit sharing. Benefits beyond direct compensation are valued at over $20,000 annually.

Manier & Herod is a well-respected law firm located in Nashville, with attorneys licensed in fifteen states plus the District of Columbia. As part of the legal community since 1914, Manier & Herod's legal expertise spans a host of practice groups. We operate in a team environment with a focus on legal training, career development, and personal and professional growth. Learn more about our Firm Values and Mission Statement at <https://www.manierherod.com/firm-values/>. Manier & Herod is willing to consider candidates located outside of Nashville and offers flexibility on remote and hybrid work options.

Qualified and interested candidates should send a resume and cover letter to dkreth@manierherod.com.